

February Newsletter

Immigration: New Direction

In the State of the Union, president Trump said, “It is time to begin moving towards a merit-based immigration system—one that admits people who are skilled, who want to work, who will contribute to our society.” The idea behind merit-based immigration is to give the priority to those with degrees or capital. The argument is that those people will be able to push the wheels of progress ahead without being dependent on the assistance of the government.

For more information, please feel free to contact our immigration attorney, Mr. Marcus Jarvis:
jarvislawfirm@msn.com Tel# 763 425 5447.

Events

Jarvis Law Firm now offers CLE courses both in-house and on-demand:

These CLE course has been approved by the Minnesota State Board of Continuing Legal Education in the following category of credit:

- a) Professional development and law office management (3 credit hours)
- b) Elimination of Bias (2 credit hours)

Professional development and law office Management:

This 3 credit hours CLE program is now offered on-demand.

Elimination of Bias:

This CLE program starts on March 20th, 2018. It is delivered in face to face (and on demand) seminar centered on Elimination of Bias.

The course is designed to discuss predictable problems and solutions of real- world examples of bias within the legal profession. The course will provide attorneys with necessary tools to professionally deal with and prevent bias. In two hours, the course will cover various topics in bias in legal practices and how to prevent them.

For more information and registration, please visit our website: <https://atbooks.com/cle/>

Upcoming event

This summer Jarvis Law Firm will be hosting a CLE program on Ethics to examine many ethical issues in the context of U.S. immigration law. Stay tuned for more information.

CLE